

COUNCIL FIRE TO BE HELD DEC. 8

With the Thanksgiving ideal woven into the ceremony of the Camp Fire Girls' grand council fire to be held in the Pythian building Saturday night, Dec. 8, a special candle lighting service written by Mrs. J. A. Holem, president of the Guardians' association, illustrating the seven laws of Camp Fire in relation to Thanksgiving will be given. Mrs. Holem is guardian of the Litahni group.

Preceding the service the candles for work, health and love, the three principals upon which Camp Fire is built, will be lighted. W. W. Borden will bring greetings from the council, and awarding of ranks and special honors will be in charge of Mrs. Kathleen Armstrong, executive secretary. It is expected that approximately 20 girls will take ranks.

All members who intend to pass rank, Mrs. Armstrong has announced, must send in their names to local headquarters by Dec. 5. Scribes' honors and clean midday honors must also be reported at headquarters. In addition to South Bend Camp Fire Girls representatives from Bertrand, Edwardsburg, Plymouth and Dixie Corners will be present.
