WINTER CAMP.

Poor old thermometer.
Hangin' in the sun.
Never getting any rest.
Allus on the run!
Have to keep in trainin'
For a promenade
From somethin' less than zero
To a hundred in the shade!
You're one of those companions
Who think it's up to you
To do, at without flinchin',
Just what you think is true.
Poor old thermometer!
Your candor is our undoing.
We praise your sense of duty
But you haven't any friends.

That's just about the way the girls feel about the kind of weather our local weather forecaster, Mr. Swain, gave us for our first period of winter camp. It was so cold on Monday and Tuesday promised to be colder... and now, as this is being written, it is actually raining. However, we are going to have camp in spite of the weather's tricks and the first period will be Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 26-27. The busses which we had expected to have for our use will be in service at that time and can not be spared so we are asking for volunteers to drive the girls to Edwardsburg Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock or to call for them on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Camp Tanna-donah. If your fathers or friends can help us notify headquarters by calling 2-5921.

Following is the list of girls who have registered for the three periods of winter camp.

First period, Jan. 26 and 27—Miss Irene Harlin, guardian of Sobehi group, Miss Marguerite Gross, assistant guardian of Akibo group, Esther Rice, Miriam Schuster, Mary Myers, Marguerite Norris and Jeanette Herr, of Sobehi group; Harriette Amos and Elvira Lytel, Swastika group; Margaret McCurtin, Zhonta group and Hope Elsaesser.

Second period, Feb. 2 and 3—Mrs. Kathleen Armstrong, executive secretary, Mary Alice Crothers, Mary Ackerman, Bobby Fry and Pauline Fry, Manuka group; Eileen Batson, Tiumaga group; Thelma Love and May Jane Dumfret, Awiya group; Verdene Miller, Tingata group, Frances Taylor, Akibo group.

Third period, Feb. 9 and 10—Mrs. Armstrong, Lurabelle Gustafson, Frances Wylie, May LeFleur, and Mardell Vance, Ohlya group; Helen Carey, Katherine Vanant and Mary Jane Buntz, Luta Koda group; Marion Gross, Betty Fitch, Ruth McClellan, Mary Hughes and Betty Barnard, Luta Koda, Sisters.

CENTRAL JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Ohlya Group.

We met Wednesday in our regular Camp Fire room and talked about winter camp. Four or five of our members are going for the third period. After our regular meeting Lurabelle Gustafson and Peggy Lang gave two pantomimes to receive an honor. Don't forget to sign up for camp!

FRANCES WYLIE, Scribe.

Nawaka Group.

We held our meeting Friday, Jan. 11, at the Camp Fire headquarters. Our Guardian, Miss Margaret Gray, was unable to be with us but Mrs. Armstrong talked to us about winter camp and new honors. There were seven girls present. We will hold our next meeting on Thursday of next week when final plans for winter camp will be talked over.

DIXIE CORNERS.

Nettopew Group.

The Nettopew group held its last meeting in the home of Harriet Byers. After our business meeting we talked over ways of entertainment after which we were served refreshments. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Lois Barber.
EVELYN WELBORN, Scribe.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Shinala Group.

We met in the Young People's room at the church with 13 members present and Mrs. Armstrong as our guest. We opened the meeting by repeating the law of the fire and giving "Burn, Fire, Burn." We talked about having a doctor or nurse demonstrate to our group the correct method of bandaging. Roll call was answered and scribes' reports were read. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Hennen discussed the ranks and how to obtain camp. Ideas were given for a symbol contest and symbols for the new girls were discussed. MARY ALICE BUSH, Scribe.

LINCOLN SCHOOL.

Nu Winta Group.

No meeting was held on Thursday because there was no school. We will meet early this week to begin our honor notebooks.

GRADUATE GROUP.

Litahni Group.

Sliding seems to be in style — at least it was for Litahni girls on last Thursday evening. We weren't back-sliding when we went to Camp Fire in the home of our guardian, Mrs. J. A. Holem, 630 East Haney avenue. During our business meeting we discussed our plans for earning the birthday honor and every girl planted her bulbs with warnings for them to be timely in their blooming. After the jolly gardeners had washed their hands and returned to the round table a program was planned for the coming months. It is as follows: Jan. 24, pot-luck supper in the home of Mrs. Holem; Feb. 2, week-end at Rose lodge for winter sports (depending on the weather); Feb. 6, guardian's meeting in the home of our guardian; Feb. 14, Valentine party in home of Donabelle Roy; Feb. 21, open date for work; Feb. 28, theater party for our mothers; March 6, guardians' meeting; March 14, arrangements for camp garden; March 21, birthday celebration; March 28, out door meeting.
