

FATHERS GUESTS AT CAMP FIRE GIRLS' SUPPER

One hundred twenty-five fathers and daughters attended the annual supper sponsored by Mishawaka Camp Fire Girls Tuesday night in Osceola school, Osceola, this county. Miss Janet Parmenter, general chairman of arrangements, was toastmaster. Joseph M. Bowen, president of the Camp Fire council and executive board; Mrs. Kenneth Shirk, president of the guardian's association, and Mrs. Barney Lynch, Camp Fire chairman of Osceola and Parent-Teacher club president of Osceola school, were honor guests and gave short talks.

Joyce Walters, of the Atoykya group of Beiger school, gave the welcome to the dads and the response was given by her father, Francis E. Walters. Two camp fire skits were presented, "There's No Place Like Camp," by Tanda group of St. Joseph's school under the direction of Miss Marion T. Tollens, guardian, and "Skillful Living," by Akawahsim group of Bingham school, directed by Mrs. Shirk. The Ecetu group of Mary Phillips school presented a dance, "Ecetu Line-up," directed by Miss Aline Christine Fisher, guardian.

Miss Wilma Rea gave a talk on camp and an exhibit of handicraft and naturecraft was shown. Program covers were designed by Miss Leona VanRie's group and the Eciptan group of St. Joseph's school assisted in arranging the program.