

EPWORTH M. E. TO FETE UNITS

Scouts and Campfire Girls to Take Part in Parents' Night.

Epworth Memorial Methodist Episcopal church is planning a gala night for Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Cubs for Friday evening. It will be parents' night and it is expected there will be 150 in attendance. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock, followed by selections by the Boy Scout band under the direction of P. L. Huffaker. Community singing will be led by Clem Lovell. Rev. J. J. Bailey will be toastmaster.

Rev. C. C. Pearce of Wingate, Ind., who is a scoutmaster and has 82 merit badges to his credit, will be the principal speaker. H. M. Tomlinson, who is the father of two scouts, will give a "Dad's Idea of Scouting" and Scout Executive Frank C. Rogers will speak on "Scouting and the Home." Miss Dorothy Brown, Camp Fire executive, will be one of the guests. After the speaking program the patrols of the scout troop will present stunts.

The members of the troop committee sponsoring the occasion are David Pretz, chairman; Forrest West, Sanders DeVries, H. M. Tomlinson, W. L. Hambley and Otto Nimitz. J. Carson Smith is scoutmaster of the troop and Clement Lovell assistant; Austin Tomlinson, junior assistant, and Harry Tomlinson, senior patrol leader. Mrs. Nelson Delano is the leader of the Camp Fire group in the church. Rev. J. J. Bailey is in charge of the Cub pack and is assisted by Austin Tomlinson.

LEGION MEN TO HEAR MARTIN

Emerson Martin, of Elkhart, Ind., Third district vice commander of the American legion, will be the speaker tonight before members of South Bend post No. 50, in the legion home, 411 West Wayne street.

Following the business session, there will be refreshments and entertainment featuring Dickinson's Plantation Singers.