

Camp Fire.

The Ohtaya group met in the home of LaVerne Kershall and completed plans for a Christmas party. The girls voted to go caroling and to give a basket to the needy.

Aboha-Hanto had a Christmas party in the home of Miss Chichester Saturday afternoon. Nine of the girls made and printed paper dishes Saturday morning at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Christene Alexander. They planned an outdoor meeting for Thursday. The Occowasin group met at the home of Annice Lee Wilson. The girls made doll dresses for Christmas and worked on rank requirements. The Kirika group, which met Wednesday at Colfax school, learned Neidlinger songs. Ella Mary Harvey was hostess to the Ehtiami group for its last meeting. They drew names and will exchange gifts at their next meeting.

Lula Koda girls, under the guidance of Miss Dorothy E. Brown, planned their January meetings which include a splash party, a work-on-ranks meeting, a council fire and a sliding party. Beverly Buckingham is scribe. The Swatruis group of the Thomas Jefferson school met Thursday and planned a Christmas party and learned new songs. Huahutuya group had a combination council fire and Christmas party Thursday evening with their leader, Mrs. J. D. Matthews. Honors were awarded by the guardian.

Members of a group being organized at Mussel school have chosen Betty McGowan president. Marry Ellen Stegman will be vice president and Julianne Wunderlich secretary. Jean Ann Hauck is song leader; Betty Rose Shaffner, treasurer, and Mary Ann Calvert, scribe. Girls in the Orchard Trees Blue Bird group had a dinner and party at the home of their leader, Mrs. H. H. Dibble, Thursday evening. A table decoration was a cookey house surrounded by marsh-mallow men and gum-drop trees. A gift exchange was made. Guests included Miss Dorothy Brown, Miss Lucile Hardman and Miss Bertha Rice.

A Christmas party at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Ruth Cyr, was held by the Otakuye group. The girls played games and exchanged gifts.

Scribe Reports.

Well, girls, there are not many scribe reports today. Tim has begun active preparation for rank, having spent the last meeting on music. Akiati installed the new officers, and reminds everyone not to forget Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 o'clock at Miss Helen Schindler's. The Daisy Bluebirds will not meet until Jan. 7; they spent the last meeting filling stockings which are to go to the hospital to make some of the children there a little more happy.

Christmas.

That reminds me that I wanted to tell you all how proud I am of you in all the rush and flurry of Christmastide celebrations you are living up to your Ideals of Camp Fire so well—remembering to stop and think, and what is more so, for those among our neighbors who are less fortunate than ourselves. I have had many reports of kindnesses done; baskets sent, parties given for those who might not have had any jolly times in view and clothing given where it was needed.

Vespers.

This year our Christmas vespers service for all the girls will be held the Sunday afternoon after Christmas at the Methodist church from 4 to 5 o'clock. Remember to come in your service uniforms. Bring your friends and parents with you. The entire service will be in charge of Miss Fisher's group, which is taking this as one way of showing their attitude toward Camp Fire and the Christmas season.

Christmas Seals.

If you have been to the post-office you will need no one to tell you what fine work some of the girls have been doing in the way of community service—selling Christmas seals. They have been having a grand time doing something very much worth while.

Greetings.

And now, to all of you, to our sister organization in South Bend, and to our good friends, the Boy Scouts, we send our kindest season's greetings.
SUZANNE KNORR, Exec. Sec.
