

Camp Fire.

Group News.

All members of Iwandhag were present at the father-daughter supper. The group is planning to fit up one of the rooms at headquarters as its meeting place.—Naomi Bierman.

The Forget-me-not Blue Bird group planned to give their principal, Miss Hodges, a goodbye letter. Each of the girls wrote a few lines and signed her name.—Joan Christoph.

The Oriole Blue Birds spent the last meeting variously in planning for the father-daughter supper, planning for camp and playing games.—Zola Brennaman.

The Daisy Blue Birds planned a supper and spent the rest of the meeting composing and practicing a stunt.—Doris Wendel.

The Aktati group met at headquarters to practice a stunt. All the girls are working on the fire-maker rank, and plan to make ceremonial gowns together.—Natalie Kamm.

Father-Daughter Supper.

The supper was an unqualified success. The girls are to be complimented upon the fine stunts. Nosiwo and the Pansies won prizes for their stunts as the best in the senior and junior divisions.

Scribes' Contest.

On your toes, scribes! The present contest ends the week before camp. If your scribe is the lucky one she may receive her award at a camp council fire.

Ranks.

Girls planning to take rank at camp should finish all remaining work and get in touch with headquarters some Saturday morning soon.

SUZANNE KNORR,
Executive Secretary.

From An Old File.

10 YEARS AGO.

May 28, 1925—Announcement was made today that Mayor D. J. Campbell, for several years sales manager of the Dodge Manufacturing corporation, has resigned, his resignation to become effective June 1. John Denyon, assistant sales manager, also has resigned.

May 29, 1925—Another wholesale liquor dumping party was held by the police Thursday afternoon when approximately 100 gallons of moonshine whisky and 300 bottles of beer were poured down the sewer.

May 30, 1925—The perpetuation of the principles for which America's defenders have fought was urged by Rev. J. A. Burnett, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the principal address of Memorial day in Battell park. Dr. Burnett's address was delivered following the march to the park and a short program in which talks were given by Johnson Berry, commander of the G. A. R., and W. W. French, commander of the Mishawaka post, No. 161, American legion.

MRS. WALTER MEINKE.

Mrs. Walter Meinke before her marriage Saturday, May 18, in St. Andrew's Evangelical & Reformed church, was Miss Bertha Kreutz, daughter of Mrs. Lena Kreutz, 718 East Third street.

—Photo by Kaylor.

blesed last evening by Rev. L. A. Moench, who delivered a very appropriate sermon at 7:30 o'clock.

June 3, 1910—The wholesale merchants' and manufacturers' board of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce will make Mishawaka a visit on the afternoon of June 8. The coming of the Toledo congregation to this city is on a similar mission as that of the Indianapolis Trade association representatives who were here Wednesday. The Toledo delegation is making the trip in 12 automobiles and will arrive in this city Wednesday afternoon.

TWO ARE NAMED ON CAMP STAFF

Executives Chosen for Summer's Outing.

Two assignments completing the executive staff for the two weeks' camp of the Mishawaka Camp Fire Girls June 16 to June 30 were announced Saturday by Miss Suzanne Knorr, executive secretary. The camp will be held at Camp Mishawaka, Stone lake, near White Pigeon, Mich.

Miss Josephine Lafler, of Warsaw, Ind., was named waterfront director, and Mrs. John Miller, camp bugler. Miss Lafler is an American Red Cross life saving examiner and also has had experience as a waterfront director in several other camps. Miss Knorr said. Miss Lafler is a student in Manchester college, North Manchester, Ind.

Mrs. Miller has held a place on the camp staff for several years. Miss Lafler will be assisted on the waterfront by Robert Zimmerman, a student at Indiana university, Bloomington, and Miss Loretta Van Rie, a student at Purdue university, Lafayette.

Other members of the staff include: Mrs. John Gardner, camp cook; Jane Guin, activities director; Anne Bodle, handicraft counselor; Evelyn Fulmer, Blue Bird counselor; Margaret Nichols, camp craft director; Marian Biltz, camp nurse; Miss Margaret Dyer, nature counselor; Mary Winey, assistant camp director; Mrs. Michael Kunkle, camp mother; Wilma Rea, camp secretary, and Miss Knorr, camp director.