

GIRLS PREPARE FOR LAKE LIFE

Camp Fire Staff at Tannadoonah Lined Up.

Several hundred Camp Fire Girls from South Bend and neighboring cities are counting the days until June 14 when their summer retreat at Camp Tannadoonah, on Birch lake, near Vandalia, Mich., will open its gates for the summer season. Annual open house will be observed at the camp next Sunday. Members of the staff will show guests about the grounds.

Miss Dorothy E. Brown, executive secretary, will be the camp director. In charge of the waterfront will be Miss Natalie Reeber, of Youngstown, O., a graduate of Ohio State university at Columbus, and an American Red Cross examiner.

In charge of camp health for the first part of the summer will be Miss Grace Witcher; Miss Irene Pollock will serve the last five weeks.

Others of the staff are Miss Margaret McCarver, Laporte, Ind., in charge of sports and dramatics; Miss Jane Blankschein, Laporte, Blue Bird cabin; Miss Kathryn McIntyre, campcraft; Miss Evelyn Welborn, handcraft counselor; Miss Elizabeth Ann Richardson, Mishawaka, campcraft assistant; Mary Elizabeth Hess, Mishawaka, nature lore; Miss Helen Rerick, Miss Grace Shafer and Miss Rosalind Mentzer, Dowagiac, Mich., assistants; Miss Barbara Kantzer, music director.
