

GIRLS RECALL CAMPING DAYS

140 Attend Annual Tannadoonah Reunion.

The atmosphere of summer camping days was evident Saturday afternoon at an annual camp reunion luncheon held by 140 Camp Fire Girls in the Studebaker cafeteria. Campers who have spent vacations at Tannadoonah, on Birch lake, near Vandalia, Mich., renewed their acquaintances, sang camp songs, gave camp yells and witnessed a program of camping skits.

Patricia Orrison was toastmaster. A hilarious program featured a mock trial in which four defendants were Helen Bryant, Glenn W. Hall, Mrs. Norris Mann and Miss Mary Jane Birch. Patricia Hilliard was the judge; Dorothy Jane Matthews and Alice Mary Nichols were attorneys, and Margaret Grundy was bailiff. Blue Birds staged a parade and cheer and among those taking part in other skits were Elizabeth Richardson, Betty Jane Carter, Alice Strickland, Kitty Amos, Pauline McKee, of Laporte, Ind., and Janet Wondries.

Girls were present from Goshen, Plymouth and Laporte, Ind., and from Dowagiac, Mich. Among the guests was Miss Mary Hess, of Mishawaka, a former councillor at Tannadoonah and now executive secretary of the Troy, N. Y., Camp Fire Girls' council.

A camp skit representing the advance in activities and equipment at Tannadoonah was staged by Dorothy Bickel, Marion Hall, Patsy Madison, Helen Bryant and Betty Lee Mooren.
