

» » Camp Fire Girls Try Fencing. » » Mascot Likes Festal Aroma. » » Free Hour at Tannadoonah. » »

FENCING AMONG South Bend Camp Fire Girls will take on all the form and grace of the professional sport if instruction being given at Tannadoonah, local Camp Fire camp, Ives Hill, Vanalia, Mich., is carried out. Here Nancy Latta (left), and Mary Lou Heck (right), are receiving pointers from Instructor Irene Gou, of Fort Worth, Texas (center).

EVEN THE DOG (Tannadoonah mascot) seems to enjoy the aroma of this feast being prepared in the outdoor cooking area of Camp Tannadoonah. Outdoor meals are a popular part of camp life, and here (left to right), Barbara Bush, South Bend; Margaret DeWolter, Gosha, Ind., and Nancy Young, South Bend, are preparing roasted corn and fried bacon.

FREE HOUR AT Camp Tannadoonah finds a variety of interests occupying the campers. Here, inside Rotary cabin, Frances Bickel (top left) reads; Joanne Madberg, of Waukegan, Ind., (top right) mends her tennis racquet; Helene Shaw (lower left), reads and Mabel Chalmers, of Chicago (lower right), writes her letter home. The camp is in its last week of the SUMMER SEASON. —Photos by Tribune Staff Photographers.